

María Eugenia Buceta Mompó

National Coordinator of Mental Health and Psychosocial Support in the Argentine Red Cross. She provides support to the country's 66 branches and to the national societies that request support. Responsible for projects in the area of populations in vulnerable situations and/or emergencies: children, the elderly, homeless people, migrants and refugees, indigenous populations. She actively collaborates with the IFRC Psychosocial Center. She has a degree in Psychology from the Catholic University of Salta. University Professor of Psychology. Specialist in Child Protection and protection of separated and/or unaccompanied children by their caregivers, University of Strathclyde. Diploma in Migration and Refugee Protection. Diploma in Management, Leadership and Policy Action. EMDR Therapist, trained by EMDR Iberoamerica and EMDR U.S.A. Specialist in Trauma, PTSD, Acute Continuous Stress and War Trauma. Active member of the LatinEuropean Network of Research in Social Psychology focused on Migration, Displacement and Inclusion.